

On:
November 21st, 2016

At:
6pm-7pm

-This is intended for parents of area children and teens.

-Covers the latest applications used by children and teens. Parents will learn more about the current issues their children face, such as sexting, cyberbullying, online predators, and solicitation of control substances.

-This seminar will include some topics that may not be appropriate for younger children. Younger children are, however, welcome and will attend a separate class with other police officers.
